

Program of Intercultural and Business Relations in Europe is composed of economic sciences, social sciences and humanities. Our programmes address different issues of international trade and intercultural approaches to international business in Europe. The tuition methods in Bachelor Degree Programmes include traditional lectures, seminars, case study analysis, buzz groups and individual supervision for students' thesis. The full-time programmes give students the latest theoretical knowledge of business environment and social skills in relation to cultural differences. If you study with us, you have the opportunity:

- to prepare your BA thesis in accordance with your particular interests;
- to attend to classes taught both by outstanding university professors and company practitioners;
- to attend classes that take place in modern auditoriums, didactic rooms or computer laboratories;
- to spend time in student areas with Wi-Fi or use our public computer stations;
- get remote access to scientific publications and e-student system thanks to which you can arranged students matters;
- to master specialize computer programs used in various business areas, e.g. OSTC Laboratory – finance and stock exchange, Statistica and SPSS - statistical data analysis;
- free use of the programmes offered by Microsoft and IBM, e.g. Microsoft Office 365 (Word, Excel, Power Point, One Note), Windows 10, Windows 8.1, Project Professional, Access, SQL Server, SharePoint Server, Visual Studio, Visio, IBM SPSS.

Our programs will give you theoretical and practical skills in the field of business and intercultural relationships. It will prepare you for challenging positions in various areas of international business.